Strength at Opening of Corn Loans Deficit and European News Furnishes Pretext for Moderate Selling Early.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The deficit in actual loans and discounts reported by developed in the curn market today, wing chieffs to the fact that receipts to todal as much as had been booked for tuening prices, which angled from to to a cover with July 1804, to $1.804, and September $1.705. the clearing house banks last Saturday and latest developments in the Elastern European situation furnished a pretext for a moderate seeling covernent at the population of today's stock market. Pressure was most evident in several of the recent favorites, especially Barrett. Studebaker and Cruchlic which yielded I to 12 points. The few features of strength comprised Delaware Lackarwanna & Western, Vanadian and Famous Players at gains of 1 to 2 points. Firmness was shown in the preliminary quotations for exchange on London, although reports of a gold movement from that center still lacked confirmation.

The dult but generally higher movement of the intermediate session was featured by shippings, oils and equipments, Marine preferred, Affantic Gulf, American International, Mexican and Pala-American petroleums and American and Halfavin Locomotives were 1 to 25g points over last week's closing priving.

Chicago.—Grain switchmen's strike spreading. Reporting men out at Baltimore. Philadelphia and on the Burlington road here. This hay something to do with strength in graft.—C. C. & Co. to McFall. Grain belt forecast generally unset-tied, probably showers except in the Da-kotas. Not much change in tempera-tures.

Chicago.—Poor reports and Kanka-today came from Decatur and Kanka-kee. Corn crop news today very good. —Wild to S. & G. Stocks.

New York—The outlaw railroad strike is taking on new life, while the wage board and the interstate commerce commission are studying the case. The result will be more delay in transportation and postpone the much hoped for trend toward normal prices.—Ettelson to Clark & Co.

to Clark & Co.

New York—The selling this morning by local crowd has not been followed by any liquidation, the short interest has been increased, the market has a good undertone. There are fluying orders under the market. Anything at all favorable will find the market bare of offerings.—T. & M. to Clark & Co. ferings.—T. & M. to Clark & Co.

New York.—Tight money and poor raliroad service has been preached so long that a goodly percentage of the trading public have come to the conclusion that it is impossible for the market to go up, but the fast that the market will not go down on the had news, is the best indication you can have that we are getting ready for an advance.—Ettelson to Clarke & Co. TOWN AT CARNIVAL ADA. Okla. June II. (By International News Service).—Burglars reaped a rich harvest while people were attending a carnival here the other night. Nine houses and one store were entered. Nearly $4,000 worth of silks were stolen from a local department store, and various sums, of money and jewelry were missing from the homes

GIRL OF 22, DIVORCED 3 TIMES, TO WED AGAIN

KALAMAZOO, Mich., June 21. (By the International News Service.)—Although only 22 years old, Mrs. Ida Linderman has been divorced three times and is planning to remarry, she told Judge Blankenburg, when arraigned with Bert Doby on a charge of disorderly conduct. Doby confirmed her statement, saying they planned to wed as soon as Mrs. Linderman gets her divorce from No. 4. Irwin-Leatherman
